Be Inspired

To be the best you can be!

Dear Parents and Carers,

As we reach the end of what has been a very long and busy term, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your ongoing support in your child's education. Your involvement has been invaluable, and I truly appreciate all you do.

Looking ahead, next term will bring even more opportunities for you to come into school and engage with the school community.

Today, we will be saying a few goodbyes. Mrs. Collins, one of our midday supervisors, is leaving us. We would like to thank her for all her hard work in making lunchtimes enjoyable for everyone.

We also want to express our gratitude to Miss Burnett for all her contributions to Winhills. We will miss you, but we know you're not far away at Middlefield Academy.

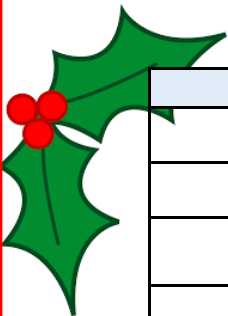

Wishing you all a very Merry Christmas, full of joy and laughter!

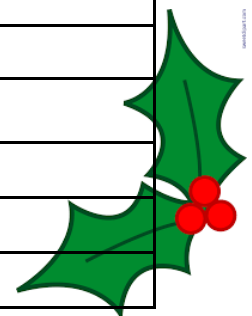

Best regards,

Mrs d'Arcy
